

Project Title	"Attractions Hunter Game " on the Android operating system : Case study of Chiang Mai
By	Mr.Jakkrit Somthet Ms Ubonrat Gonsurin
Project Advisor	Mr Wacharapong Nachiengmai
Department	Software Engineering
Academic Year	2013

ABSTRACT

Now ,Thai people Interested travel for foreign up but in domestic is less. It make economy in Thailand bad because foreign travel public relations to travel is very bestter So we think for make application to support travel in domestic.

The objective of project study, "Attractions Hunter Game " on the Android operating system : Case study of Chiang Mai is to promote domestic tourism because the domestic tourism is not interesting enough. There was the need to build this game to promote domestic tourism. The trial in the Android and use Chiang Mai is case study. This game is form of competition that promotes tourism. Easy to use, suitable for all ages with an interest in tourism.

Tools and applications used for creating, developing the system include Eclipse, programming in Java , Programs is written in the language PHP, managing the database and server with MySQL .